Notices & Disclosures

PPAP: Announcement on Business Outcome for January and the first month of 2026

Economic and Business News

Korean investors, journalists to visit Cambodia for the facts

Korean investors and journalists will visit Cambodia in mid-February to assess the country's investment environment and safety conditions. Cambodian Ambassador to South Korea, Khuon Phon Rattanak, met with Park Joo Bong, Chairman of Daejoo KC, to discuss Cambodia-Korea relations, including trade, tourism, cultural exchanges, and government efforts to rebuild trust after last year's online crime incident. Park highlighted South Korea's commitment to strong ties and outlined the delegation's plan to provide firsthand reporting on Cambodia. The Ambassador welcomed the visit, emphasizing the embassy's support in facilitating meetings with Cambodian ministries and encouraging accurate media coverage to boost investor and tourist confidence. (Khmer Times)

'GDT Home Tax' launch marks a new era for Cambodia

Cambodia has launched the GDT Home Tax, a unified digital platform that integrates all previous tax applications into a single portal, aiming to reduce administrative hurdles, manual errors, and improve taxpayer compliance, according to Oknha Tan Khée Meng, President of the Malaysian Business Chamber in Cambodia. Unveiled at the Tax Forum 2026 at the new Tax Tower, the platform represents a major step in modernizing Cambodia's tax system, promoting transparency, efficiency, and trust between taxpayers and authorities. Tan emphasized that digitalization would encourage voluntary compliance, help formalize informal businesses, and support long-term national development, positioning Cambodia as a regional leader in E-Tax administration. (Khmer Times)

Cambodia, Laos agree to deepen trade cooperation

Cambodia and Laos have agreed to strengthen bilateral cooperation across trade, investment, agriculture, energy, transport connectivity, border affairs, security, and the fight against transnational crimes, including human trafficking and online fraud. The agreement was reached during a meeting between Prime Minister Hun Manet and Lao counterpart Sonexay Siphandone in Phnom Penh, emphasizing the importance of improving transport infrastructure to facilitate cross-border trade and regional connectivity. Both sides aim to boost bilateral trade to $700 million by 2030 and highlighted the strategic use of Cambodia and Laos as transit points to enhance regional logistics. The leaders also pledged to organize activities and high-level exchanges to commemorate the 70th anniversary of diplomatic relations in 2026. (Khmer Times)
